South by South West 'Super Margs' Margaret River 2022

Inspired by winemaker Livia Miorana's Italian heritage, this is a Margaret River twist on Italy's famed "Super Tuscan" wines. Predominantly Sangiovese, blended with cabernet sauvignon, from 2022 which was an excellent vintage for the region. All of the fruit was grown in the famed Willyabrup sub-region of Margaret River, known for the quality of its red wines in particular. Both parcels were fermented on their skins in stainless steel with indigenous yeasts, before the sangiovese was pressed off into larger format Hungarian oak barrels and the cabernet sauvignon into French oak barriques. This is an unquestionably fine wine which is both reflective of the Margaret River terroir and the vision of the winemaker, all while maintaining the wonderfully "Aussie" charm and drinkability. This shows succulent cassis, bramble and morello cherry on the nose, backed up by a note of sweet mocha. The pallet is sweet-fruited, with plush tannins and vibrancy from the sangiovese. The cabernet sauvignon brings a delicate hint of clove from the French oak and the sangiovese a hint of spice from the Hungarian oak. An utter joy to drink, even in its youth, this shows so much charm and deliciousness. A wine which sells out shortly after release in Australia, we are the only company that Liv and Mij have been willing to export to and produced a little more this year especially for Society members. Drink from 2024 to 2033. 13.5%

Vasse Felix Margaret River Cabernet Sauvignon 2021

2021 was the 50th vintage of this wine for Vasse Felix and multi-award-winning winemaker Virginia Wilcox has produced a suitably outstanding wine to mark the occasion. Vasse Felix is the pioneering winery of this region and you could say that this wine is the region's original cabernet sauvignon, produced every year since 1972, making it the truest taste of Margaret River cabernet. However, 2021 was a slightly cooler vintage than 2020 or 2022, and Wilcox has taken what the weather provided and expressed it as a finessed and incredibly elegant cabernet sauvignon which is vibrant and sophisticated. A wine that offers many layers of aroma and flavour, this shows plush purple fruit, cassis and cedar in its youth. Cigar box notes start to come through with oxygen, along with an alluring herbaceous bay-leaf character so typical of good cabernet from this area. This is a wine which evolves in the glass beautifully and shows real pedigree. An earthiness comes through on the nose, along with plum and sweet spices. The palate is broad, with real cabernet structure; firm but perfectly ripe tannins, and balanced acidity. The alluring fruit on the palate draws you in, with notes of blackcurrant crumble, figs and freshly squeezed blackberries, while a hint of graphite backs up the fruit and drives the palate towards the finish, where it is joined with a burst of cracked black pepper and fleshy black fruit. At this price you will struggle to find a better example of cabernet from this outstanding fine wine region and whether you wish to drink this in 2 years or 10+ it will not fail to offer incredible amounts of drinking pleasure. Drink from 2024 to 2036. 14%
