Champagne Pol Roger Brut Réserve NV

Founded in 1849 by Monsieur Pol Roger, today the firm is still family owned and run by Christian de Billy and his son Hubert and their cousin Christian Pol Roger. Pol Roger own some 70 hectares in both the Côte de Blancs and Vallée de la Marne which supply 40% of their needs and their Champagne is consistently in the top half dozen in terms of quality. Sir Winston Churchill who loved it, memorably described Pol Roger's residence as 'the world's most drinkable address'. This is the perfect aperitif Champagne: clean, floral, elegant and with a delicious biscuity flavour. Party Champagne par excellence but an indulgent treat with fish and chips too.

Champagne Pol Roger Vintage Brut 2012

Many feel 2012 is on a par with the superb 2008, but the style is different. 2012 was a warmer year, giving richer wines which are drinking very well on release. Pol's wine offers a spellbinding case in point with a lemon and brioche aroma, complex and concentrated palate and impressive length.

Magnum of Champagne Pol Roger Brut Reserve, Non-Vintage

Winston Churchill's favourite grande marque, made from equal parts pinot noir, chardonnay and pinot meunier, is a model of style and finesse. Its floral quality, fine, delicate mousse and intensity of flavour make it both perfect aperitif and food option. Toasty, classy and pure.

Magnum of Pol Roger Vintage Brut 2009

The 2009 vintage of this Champagne is more accessible on release than the highly acclaimed 2008, but will also age well for 10 years. Made from 60% pinot and 40% chardonnay, fermented in steel, and aged for nine years on the lees in Pol's deep damp cellars. Hand riddled to ensure fine bubbles, this vintage fine wine is elegant yet rich.
