With fruit from both McLaren Vale and Langhorne Creek, this is a fascinating Australian wine. The nose is constantly evolving, with blueberry, plum and cinnamon notes, which intensifies on the palate. The finish is impressive and the fruit is joined by a hint of spice. Decant for 30 minutes or so.

Taut, high-wire chardonnay from cool climate Yarra Valley, near Melbourne. More one for Chablis lovers than fans of stereotypical Australian chardonnay. Vibrant, modern Australian pinot, with fresh redcurrant, cherry and blackcurrant leaf aromas. The palate is lifted with grippy tannins and ample freshness. The redcurrant flavours continue and are joined by black pepper spice. Very stylish.
