The Society's Pinot Grigio 2019

There's an awful lot of pinot grigio about, so we're extra particular about ours. The warrant goes to Kiwi winemaker Matt Thomson, and a single vineyard in Valpantena, north-east of Verona in Italy, where cool breezes from the Dolomites ensure steady ripening. Clean-cut, rounded and fruity, with the trademark 'breadcrust' character of the grape, and a world away from some of its namesakes.

This malbec is from the tiny region of Les Mauges, between Nantes and Angers in the Loire Valley, whose winemaking heritage has been revived by a small band of dynamic winemakers led by Christophe Réthoré and his team. It's a pure malbec (often known as côtes in the Loire), made like a pinot noir, without oak, to preserve the beautiful floral fruit, silkiness and freshness of the grape which can otherwise tend to rusticity.

The Society's White Burgundy 2018

Our best-loved wine for many years, this Mâcon white continues to rise above the ebb and flow of fashion. Buyer Tim Sykes works with long-term supplier Jean-Marc Darbon to craft a blend that is of consistently good quality while respecting vintage differences. 2018 was a warm, ripe vintage, and the wine has lovely depth of flavour and roundness of texture with apple fruit and a fresh finish.

Muscadet Sèvre-et-Maine sur Lie, Comte Leloup du Château de Chasseloir, Cuvée des Ceps Centenaires 2015

Rare Muscadet made from a plot of vines averaging 100 years of age, here in a ripe vintage, this wine is given extended bottle maturation for greater complexity without losing its inherent freshness and mineral tang. This wine qualifies for the new Muscadet Cru Communal status but it is so well known as it is that the Chéreaus have decided to maintain its distinctive long name and wired bottle. The weight and concentration of grapes harvested from century-old vines makes for an ideal partner to seafood classics such as plump, savoury English oysters, seared scallops or any other seasonal fish which warrants a special bottle.

Clairette de Die, Chapoutier 2018

A first for The Society, this wine is from a mountainous sub-region of the Rhône Valley that has always specialised in very light, sweet sparkling wines made by just a single fermentation in bottle. Chapoutier's take is typically unique as this quince-tinged sparkler isn't over-sweet and is properly refreshing.

Tio Toto Pedro Ximenez

A natural sweet wine, the result of drying Pedro Ximenez grapes outside in the sun to concentrate the sugars. The must is then partly fermented to make this luscious, rich, intensely sweet sherry with aromas of dried figs, raisins, coffee and sultanas. The palate is silky and very rich, but not cloying due to an extremely fresh finish. The ideal wine to accompany Christmas pudding or bitter chocolate mousse, yet it will also work well with blue cheeses and is heavenly when poured over vanilla ice cream. Once opened, it will keep for months.

Bin #005 Xinomavro 2017

The Bin Series was created to give individual wines the spotlight we feel they deserve, and this is one of the most exciting releases to date: a very special xinomavro from Greek winemaking master Apostolos Thymiopoulos. Apostolos has put both the northern Greek region of Naoussa and its star grape, xinomavro, on the map, gaining a strong cult following around the world. Many Society members are followers of his wines and it's a pleasure to be able to offer members this exclusive new red. Sourced exclusively from a new site which got him very excited, in the small village of Fyteia, 'Bin #005' is a precise and refined example of this wonderful northern Greek grape, showing red and black-fruit flavours, tension, lift and freshness. Fuller-bodied than a pinot noir, lighter than a Barolo, and yet with similarities to both, this is a unique wine bursting with personality. You could be forgiven for thinking it had been produced by one of the great winemakers of Burgundy while on a holiday to northern Greece! Don't miss it. Low stock: Limited to 12 bottles per member.

Once and Future Forcini Zinfandel 2016

A great introduction to this latest project from Joel Peterson of Ravenswood fame. The Forcini vineyard was planted around 1900 in the Russian River Valley, and its old bush-pruned zinfandel vines yield a heady combination of boysenberry and blueberry flavours. Full-bodied and ripe with a long vanilla-spiced finish, this is a treat of a wine that should be decanted before serving. Please note that the bottle does not have a capsule covering the cork.

Magnum of Nino Franco Brut Prosecco Superiore NV

A magnum of fine fizz looks fantastic, and this one tasted so good that the choice to stock it in this party-perfect format seemed a natural decision. Its enticing blossom and pear notes on the nose follow onto the palate with flavours of lemon and green apple, kept in delicious balance by its creamy mousse, before a dry crisp finish that leaves you refreshed and ready for a second glass. The prime hillside vineyards where the grapes are grown are 'DOCG' (Denominazione di Origine Controllata e Garantita, the highest designation of quality under Italian wine law) and rise steeply above the beautiful Valdobbiadene region. Cool yet well exposed, they give perfectly balanced grapes and the quality shines through in this top-quality Prosecco.

Champagne Lilbert Grand Cru Blanc de Blancs Perlé NV

Champagne is, of course, a sparkling wine, and those all-important bubbles are all to do with the amount of sugar added to the juice – the more the sugar the bigger the bubbles. The tradition in Cramant is to make less fizzy Champagnes that are very fine and full-flavoured. Most sparkling wine is made with six atmospheres of pressure but here there is only about four. The result is a wine that is creamy rather than fully sparkling. Lovely on its own but also a perfect match for food.
