Tannat-Syrah 'Aramis', Laplace, Vin de France 2017

The Laplace family are leaders in Madiran and have an innate understanding of the region's tannat grape variety. This is their quaffing wine in which they add a little syrah. Ripe and deliciously fruity Gascon red with a pinch of spice. Please note that this may throw a deposit of tartrate crystals. This is completely natural, harmless and does not affect the taste of the wine, and can be removed by decanting if desired.

The Society's Pinot Grigio 2019

There's an awful lot of pinot grigio about, so we're extra particular about ours. The warrant goes to Kiwi winemaker Matt Thomson, and a single vineyard in Valpantena, north-east of Verona in Italy, where cool breezes from the Dolomites ensure steady ripening. Clean-cut, rounded and fruity, with the trademark 'breadcrust' character of the grape, and a world away from some of its namesakes.

Château d'Emeringes, Beaujolais-Villages Vieilles Vignes 2018

This château is a magnificent edifice, now sadly in disrepair, high up in the northern hills near Juliéna. The cool spot makes an intense, deeply coloured, refreshing style of Beaujolais that can outshine many a cru. The 2018 is superb.

Val de Loire 'Pertinence' Malbec, Réthoré Davy 2018

This malbec is from the tiny region of Les Mauges, between Nantes and Angers in the Loire Valley, whose winemaking heritage has been revived by a small band of dynamic winemakers led by Christophe Réthoré and his team. It's a pure malbec (often known as côtes in the Loire), made like a pinot noir, without oak, to preserve the beautiful floral fruit, silkiness and freshness of the grape which can otherwise tend to rusticity.

Product Code	LO15501	Dominant Grape	Malbec/Cot

Origin	Loire	Alcohol Level	12.5%

Côtes-du-Rhône, Château Courac 2015

Generous and rich in the 2015 vintage, this is a full-bodied fruity Rhône red from the village of Laudun. Syrah plays a significant part in the blend, hence the deep colour and dark spicy fruit.

Vibrant, full-bodied red from a small family-run estate near the Gorges de l'Ardèche. The Thibon family make their wine in this sun-kissed part of the southern Rhône in a way that pays due respect to nature; the shire horse, Nestor, does much of the work in the vineyards!

Muscadet Sèvre-et-Maine sur Lie, Comte Leloup du Château de Chasseloir, Cuvée des Ceps Centenaires 2015

Rare Muscadet made from a plot of vines averaging 100 years of age, here in a ripe vintage, this wine is given extended bottle maturation for greater complexity without losing its inherent freshness and mineral tang. This wine qualifies for the new Muscadet Cru Communal status but it is so well known as it is that the Chéreaus have decided to maintain its distinctive long name and wired bottle. The weight and concentration of grapes harvested from century-old vines makes for an ideal partner to seafood classics such as plump, savoury English oysters, seared scallops or any other seasonal fish which warrants a special bottle.

Bogle Vineyard Californian Chardonnay 2018

A Golden State tradition with a modern lick of freshness, this is a delight for those of us who love the shameless richness of old-school California chardonnay. Half is aged in new American oak for those mellow vanilla and nutmeg notes while the other half gets a stint in steel to preserve its pristine peach and citrus charm. Perfect with a serious fish or chicken pie, bubbling with cream.

Momo Vendimia Seleccionada, Ribera del Duero 2016

Elegant and intense Ribera, full of the dark fruits and spice that is typical of this top red wine region in Spain. Momo is made from the grapes that don't quite make the cut for the main Bohórquez wine (which sells for nearly double the price), giving you a taste of luxury at a much friendlier cost.

Cru Communal Muscadet bottled in March of this year by winemaking friends, so-called 'curious beasts' Jérémie Huchet (Muscadet) and Jérémie Mourat (Vendée). This has plenty of body, with a lovely tension and minerality refreshed by muscadet's hallmark salinity.

Clairette de Die, Chapoutier 2018

A first for The Society, this wine is from a mountainous sub-region of the Rhône Valley that has always specialised in very light, sweet sparkling wines made by just a single fermentation in bottle. Chapoutier's take is typically unique as this quince-tinged sparkler isn't over-sweet and is properly refreshing.

Product Code	SG2911	Dominant Grape	Muscat
Product Type	Sparkling Wine	Drink Dates	Now to 2021
Origin	Rhone	Alcohol Level	7.5%

Tio Toto Pedro Ximenez

A natural sweet wine, the result of drying Pedro Ximenez grapes outside in the sun to concentrate the sugars. The must is then partly fermented to make this luscious, rich, intensely sweet sherry with aromas of dried figs, raisins, coffee and sultanas. The palate is silky and very rich, but not cloying due to an extremely fresh finish. The ideal wine to accompany Christmas pudding or bitter chocolate mousse, yet it will also work well with blue cheeses and is heavenly when poured over vanilla ice cream. Once opened, it will keep for months.

Product Code	SH1291	Dominant Grape	Pecorino

Macabeu Les Perles de Jones, Domaine Jones, Vin de France 2015

British winemaker Katie Jones is becoming something of an expert in the traditional grape varieties of southern France. Macabeu, also known in Spain as viura, is her latest exploit and it's a triumph! Dry, persistent, clean and a touch herby, this is a great food wine (perhaps with a paella?).

Bin #005 Xinomavro 2017

The Bin Series was created to give individual wines the spotlight we feel they deserve, and this is one of the most exciting releases to date: a very special xinomavro from Greek winemaking master Apostolos Thymiopoulos. Apostolos has put both the northern Greek region of Naoussa and its star grape, xinomavro, on the map, gaining a strong cult following around the world. Many Society members are followers of his wines and it's a pleasure to be able to offer members this exclusive new red. Sourced exclusively from a new site which got him very excited, in the small village of Fyteia, 'Bin #005' is a precise and refined example of this wonderful northern Greek grape, showing red and black-fruit flavours, tension, lift and freshness. Fuller-bodied than a pinot noir, lighter than a Barolo, and yet with similarities to both, this is a unique wine bursting with personality. You could be forgiven for thinking it had been produced by one of the great winemakers of Burgundy while on a holiday to northern Greece! Don't miss it. Low stock: Limited to 12 bottles per member.

The 15% cabernet franc in the blend emphasizes the cedary, lead pencil notes.

Once and Future Forcini Zinfandel 2016

A great introduction to this latest project from Joel Peterson of Ravenswood fame. The Forcini vineyard was planted around 1900 in the Russian River Valley, and its old bush-pruned zinfandel vines yield a heady combination of boysenberry and blueberry flavours. Full-bodied and ripe with a long vanilla-spiced finish, this is a treat of a wine that should be decanted before serving. Please note that the bottle does not have a capsule covering the cork.

Magnum of Nino Franco Brut Prosecco Superiore NV

A magnum of fine fizz looks fantastic, and this one tasted so good that the choice to stock it in this party-perfect format seemed a natural decision. Its enticing blossom and pear notes on the nose follow onto the palate with flavours of lemon and green apple, kept in delicious balance by its creamy mousse, before a dry crisp finish that leaves you refreshed and ready for a second glass. The prime hillside vineyards where the grapes are grown are 'DOCG' (Denominazione di Origine Controllata e Garantita, the highest designation of quality under Italian wine law) and rise steeply above the beautiful Valdobbiadene region. Cool yet well exposed, they give perfectly balanced grapes and the quality shines through in this top-quality Prosecco.

El Sacramento, Rioja 2014

A stunning, single-vineyard Rioja which comes from a new property shaking up the scene in Spain. The vineyard is ancient, first planted in the 17th century, but the winemaking is modern thanks to the talent of Jesus Madrazo who left famous Contino to make El Sacramento. The 2014 fully displays the potential of this superb vineyard in Alavesa. All the grapes are hand-picked and the wine is aged in new, French oak barrels for 17 months before bottling. A beautifully crafted blend of tempranillo and 8% graciano, this is exotic and smoky, full-bodied yet elegant.

Champagne Lilbert Grand Cru Blanc de Blancs Perlé NV

Champagne is, of course, a sparkling wine, and those all-important bubbles are all to do with the amount of sugar added to the juice – the more the sugar the bigger the bubbles. The tradition in Cramant is to make less fizzy Champagnes that are very fine and full-flavoured. Most sparkling wine is made with six atmospheres of pressure but here there is only about four. The result is a wine that is creamy rather than fully sparkling. Lovely on its own but also a perfect match for food.

5-Litre Box of Côtes-du-Rhône, Famille Jaume

Bag yourself the chance to enjoy Côtes-du-Rhône on tap! This box contains five lovely litres of round and fruity red from Domaine Jaume, who have been supplying The Wine Society with Côtes-du-Rhône since 1981. With a touch of spice to the flavour, this is made with grenache and syrah grapes from young vines, giving the wine a freshness that makes it perfect for barbecues or parties. We have had a sample open in our temperature-controlled tasting room (far away from the roasting south of France) for a couple of months and it's still as fresh as a daisy; so please note that while the Jaumes recommend drinking it within 20 days of opening to enjoy it at its freshest, rest assured that it will keep for longer if stored in a cool place!

Dominus Napa Valley 2014

A Napa cabernet with a French heritage: this world-class wine has been crafted by Bordeaux grandee Christian Moueix since 1981, and the 2014 vintage really shows the elegance of this formidable pedigree. A blend of 86% cabernet sauvignon 7% petit verdot, 7% cabernet franc, matured in French barrels (40% of which were new), this young wine has a beautiful vanilla-led oak aroma. The palate offers cassis, blackberry and mocha notes, with plenty of spice, anise and leather complexity developing in the glass. Captivating and charming now, but a truly special prospect for the cellar.
