Domaine Jones Hairy Grenache 2019

Katie Jones comes from Leicestershire but makes wine in the Languedoc-Roussillon. This particular wine was supposed to be grenache but it turns out it's a rare, rot-resistant variant called lledoner pelut. For this first, very ripe vintage, Katie has made an outrageously delicious barbecue-friendly red.

Product Code	FC39211	Dominant Grape	Grenache/Garnacha
Product Type	Red Wine	Drink Dates	Now to 2022
Origin	Languedoc and Roussillon	Alcohol Level	14.0%

---

Domaine Jones Blanc "A Different Direction" 2019

A joyous blend of traditional grapes from this part of the deep south of France knitted together in perfect harmony. It has the lovely mineral streak of grenache gris, lifted fruit of grenache blanc and a dollop of richness from the macabeu. Katie and Jean-Marc usually bottle their wines as single varieties, hence the 'different direction' taken with this blend. We hope you'll agree that, like the debut 2018, it's a path well worth travelling.

Sancerre 'L'Essentiel', Pierre Cherrier & Fils 2017

Based on the same assemblage as the Les Chailloux blend, but with six more months on its fine lees in tank and bottled without stabilisation, which they say allows the wine to evolve more slowly. Gently citrusy Loire sauvignon, with hints of lime flower, creamy-texture and long palate.

Kingston Family Vineyards Sabina Casablanca Chardonnay 2018

The wines are named after horses owned by the family, and 'Sabina' is a concentrated yet crisp and fresh Chilean chardonnay. Born of low yields and a cool climate, the wine has a hint of richness from 15% malolactic fermentation, which enhances the palate with a light creaminess. Matured for 14 months in 400-litre barrels to give a slight hint of vanilla, but no more.

Blackbook Winery Clayhill Vineyard Chardonnay 2019

Single-vineyard chardonnay from Essex, an 'urban wine' vinified by an American in Battersea. The wine has spent 11 months on the lees and 10 months in barrel gaining weight and complexity, without masking the fresh acidity, stone-fruit and lime notes on the palate. Bottled unfinned and unfiltered so it may throw harmless deposit.

San Román, Toro 2014

A potent conception, made from 100% tinta de toro (aka tempranillo) old vines located on sandy soils with clay sub-soils. Plump, opulent and showing the typical intensity that comes with Toro's continental climate, this needs time in a decanter to show its full range of aromas and flavours.

Domaine Duplessis, Chablis Premier Cru Montmains 2018

Excellent Montmains with unusual depth of flavour for this cru. This Chablis is matured for 12 months in stainless steel and six months in old barrels, and the wood ageing just rounds the wine out a little and opens it up and contributes only the merest whiff of oak.

Product Code	BU76061	Dominant Grape	Chardonnay

The 204th vintage by the Despagne family on the Grand Corbin terroir, and the knowledge built up over generations is clearly reflected in the wine. A fresh and vibrant Saint-Emilion with silky tannins and plush texture. François Despagne believes passionately that wine is produced in the vineyard rather than the winery, and the 2015 certainly bears this out.

Seven Springs Eola-Amity Hills Pinot Noir 2018

With Rajat Parr and Sashi Moorman at the helm, this pinot is from dry-farmed vines originally planted in 1982. These Pommard clones thrive in the iron-rich soils, giving a perfumed wine whose spice, earth and redcurrant notes open up and develop over a few hours. A very fine California wine.

Teho Tomal Vineyard La Consulta Malbec 2015

Made from a vineyard planted in 1940, in the cool La Consulta region, this is dense, powerful and structured Argentine malbec yet the tannins are soft and sweet and the fruit is generous and welcoming. Teho means "blood of the earth" in the local Huarpe indian language of Mendoza.

Product Code	AR3861	Dominant Grape	Malbec/Cot
Product Type	Red Wine	Drink Dates	Now to 2031

Ridgeview Blanc de Noirs Brut 2014

One of Ridgeview's flagship wines and a stunning combination of power and precision. Made purely from pinots noir and meunier, this is packed with flavours of pink grapefruit, redcurrants and brioche whilst maintaining impressive finesse and elegance, now with savory autolytic characters coming through thanks to extended time on the lees and some bottle age. Once opened, leave out of the fridge and the wine will get broader, richer and more complex with time and air.

Contino Viña del Olivo, Rioja 2016

Only made in special vintages, Olivo is a beautifully structured Rioja with depth, intensity and clarity. The indulgent 2016 is outstanding. Our advice is to buy now and be patient – this has a long life ahead and will benefit from some more bottle ageing.

Product Code	SP15271	Dominant Grape	Tempranillo
Product Type	Red Wine	Drink Dates	Now to 2035

Louis Jadot, Meursault Premier Cru Poruzot 2015

Jadot often moderate the richness of a ripe vintage by partially blocking the malolactic fermentation to contribute some freshness. They keep wines 18 months in barrel and while it matures on the lees a savoury, oatmealy richness develops.

Product Code	BU64451	Dominant Grape	Chardonnay

Domaine Antoine et Francois Jobard Meursault Premier Cru Poruzots 2013

Maison Roche de Bellene, Gevrey-Chambertin Premier Cru Lavaux St Jacques 2010

At a tasting at Roche de Bellene as its quality stood out. From the cool valley, or Combe, behind the village of Gevrey-Chambertin in Burgundy, Lavaux St Jacques is a lovely vineyard producing fine, elegant wines with wonderful black-cherry perfume and silky tannins. This cool year managed to ripen thanks to its small crop and has produced this unusual and special balance combining an intensely aromatic vintage with ripe, sweet tannins.

Domaine William Fèvre, Chablis Grand Cru Côte Bouguerots 2016

This comes from a 2.2ha parcel from some of the steepest slopes in Chablis – so steep that the plough has to be winched up the hillside! 100% barrel fermented, yet with no hint of oak flavour, it offers a superb taut, fresh, powerful and mineral palate.

Product Code	BU67701	Dominant Grape	Chardonnay
Product Type	White Wine	Drink Dates	Now to 2027

Hermitage, Domaine Faurie 2012

From what seems like a garage beneath a rather unprepossessing house on the outskirts of Tournon come minute quantities of outstanding Hermitage. Bernard's vines are in Bessards, Méal and Greffieux and for The Wine Society he makes a blend of all three. Sinewy, effortless, refined and very long Rhône red.

Product Code	RH35941	Dominant Grape	Syrah/Shiraz
Product Type	Red Wine	Drink Dates	Now to 2030
Origin	Rhone	Alcohol Level	13.5%

Product Type	White Wine	Drink Dates	Now to 2026
Origin	Burgundy	Alcohol Level	12.5%

Louis Jadot, Gevrey-Chambertin Premier Cru Clos St Jacques (Domaine) 2013

Of all the wines in the cool Combe de Lavaux this is the greatest. A candidate for grand cru, this is a Burgundy of great distinction, impressing by its exquisite flavour and perfect proportions. All five producers have rows running from the top to the bottom of the slope which perhaps explains its near perfect balance.

Domaine Jean Grivot, Vosne-Romanée Premier Cru Brûlées 2008

From the most aristocratic of all Côte d'Or communes, formidably packed with grands crus and fine premiers, this superb offering from Grivot has a visibly mature orange hue at the rim, follows on with a sweet, ripe and lovely nose and settles into a soft, round palate. Delicious. Low stock: Limited to three bottles per member.

Louis Jadot, Corton-Charlemagne Grand Cru (Héritiers) 2015

This is from the south-facing Pougets vineyard. Jadot taste it after Le Montrachet and it is not embarrassed in this elite company, with richness from the slope's aspect and a taut grippy structure from the clay-limestone terroir of Corton-Charlemagne. The 2015 is big and broad white Burgundy, with remarkable power and steely structure.

Cornas, Chaillots, Domaine Thierry Allemand 2011

Rather like 2004 says Thierry Allemand, which for him was a very fine vintage. Chaillots is made from his 'young' vines which actually means about 40 years old. Poise and finesse with some richness (more than in his 2004s, in fact).
