

EN PRIMEUR OFFERS AND HOW THEY WORK

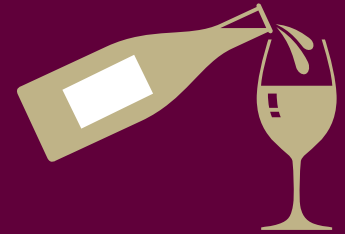

WHAT IS AN EN PRIMEUR OFFER?

Buying wines that are still maturing in cellars in their country of origin.
The wines arrive in the UK after they have been bottled, a year or two after the vintage.

WHY BUY THEM NOW?

Secure your share of in-demand wines that may sell out later, and purchase them at first-release prices.

HOW LONG DO YOU NEED TO KEEP THE WINES?

Each wine has a suggested drinking window; ultimately, however, deciding when to pull the cork is a matter of personal taste. Buying a case also gives you the opportunity to try a wine as it matures over a period of time.

WHAT DOES THE PRICE INCLUDE?

En primeur wines are priced 'in-bond', which includes:

- Shipping to the UK.
- Delivery to any UK address.

Payment of duty and VAT will be requested once you take delivery or transfer them to Duty-Paid Members' Reserves.

WHERE SHOULD I KEEP THE WINES?

Many of the wines offered en primeur need a number of years' ageing.
Our purpose-built Members' Reserves facility provides an ideal environment for members who do not have a cellar of their own.

OUR GUARANTEE

The Wine Society has been successfully selling wines in this way to its members since the 1975 vintage. All these wines are fully covered by The Society's guarantee.
