An open day is held every year, on the Saturday of the Ascension holiday. To include a tour of the winery, discover the Gigondas and Vacqueyras wines, with vertical tastings of vintages that sometimes go as far back as 1980. Also on offer are regional specialities produced by local cheese-makers, pork butchers and confectioners. For children there is artisanal fruit juices, a chance to learn about the life of bees with Stéphane, the beekeeper, together with organised games. Live rock, pop or jazz music.
